Figures from the practice, September 2026

A remedy only works when the mind is ready for it. So Narayani begins with how you think, then reads your numbers, your home and your chart.

Why she starts with the mind

Your numbers, your chart and your home can show where you stand. Changing it depends on how you think and decide, so that is where every consultation begins.

She may be right for you if

The same problems keep coming back, whatever you try.

You respect tradition and want to understand the reason behind a remedy.

You are ready to change something yourself, not only to hear what will happen.
